MARK YOUR 2018 CALENDARS FOR THE UPCOMING SPECIAL AUTHOR EVENTS PLANNED FOR THIS YEAR!!! MORE DETAILS WILL FOLLOW WITH THE SPECIFICS
ADVANCE RESERVATIONS WILL BE REQUIRED
GUESTS WELCOME!! INVITE YOUR FRIENDS AND FAMILY!

Tuesday, May 22nd at 4:30 p.m.

We are delighted to have our guest Michael Anthony, author of Civilianized: A Young Veteran's Memoir, as our first author of 2018! Just days before Memorial Day seems like the perfect time for his visit with us.

Michael, an Iraqi veteran, is the author of two acclaimed and award-winning memoirs of his life as a soldier. His writing is strong, honest, sometimes dark, sometimes humorous...and it packs a punch. He has been featured in several documentaries regarding military service, including the Gold Remi award-winning documentary "Aside from That." Hear how Michael went from near suicide to an accomplished writer, guest lecturer and public speaker who spends his free time working with veterans.

Tuesday, July 24th at 11:30 a.m.

We are delighted to welcome Jeannette de Beauvoir, author of Our Lady of the Dunes, as our second author of 2018!

Jeannette is an award-winning mystery and historical novelist whose work has appeared in 15 countries and 12 languages. She explores personal and moral questions in her books, often in places you will recognize. In Our Lady of the Dunes you will feel the sun, wind and sand of Provincetown during World War II in a marvelous coming-of-age story.

Thursday, September 6th at 11:30 a.m.

We are delighted to welcome Nina MacLaughlin, author of Hammer Head: The Making of a Carpenter, as our final author of 2018!

Imagine having a B.A. in English and Classical Studies from the University of Pennsylvania, and a journalism job at the Boston Phoenix, the award-winning alternative newsweekly. Then imagine quitting that job after eight years to work as a carpenter's assistant. Nina MacLaughlin's experience leaving her desk job to learn the carpentry trade is the subject of her first book, Hammer Head: The Making of a Carpenter. Rebecca Steinmetz of the Boston Globe wrote "MacLaughlin is a master writer, with the rare combination of acute observation and astute word choice that characterizes writers like Annie Dillard or Joan Didion."
