BNC MISSION STATEMENT

Brandeis National Committee is dedicated to providing philanthropic support to Brandeis University, a distinguished liberal arts and research university founded by the American Jewish community. Its membership is connected to the university through fundraising and through activities that reflect the values on which the university was founded: academic excellence, social justice, non-sectarianism, and service to the community.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDIUM

Dear Gotham members,

You have a new Presidium! We are well known to you and we would like you to feel free to write or call any of us whenever you have any questions. We are here to work together to make the Gotham chapter ever more successful and responsive to your wishes. The new campaign "Sustaining the Mind" is our next most important undertaking. We plan to inform you of all the new research being done at Brandeis so that you can feel proud of your continued support.

We are looking forward to a great new season.

JOIN US FOR A SPECIAL SUMMER EVENT

Tuesday, August 14 – Tour of City Island, Bronx, NY – $20

11:00 a.m. – Corner of Ditmars Street and City Island Avenue
We will meet our tour guide at 11:10 a.m. for a 1½ hour tour.

City Island is a small community at the edge of New York City located just beyond Pelham Bay Park in the Bronx and surrounded by the water of western Long Island Sound and Eastchester Bay. It has a rich maritime history and we will have an opportunity to learn about the history of the island. At the end of the tour, we will have a delicious lunch at Sammy's Fish Box restaurant, one of City Island's famous restaurants on the water. Lunch will be at your own expense. The day of the event you can reach Elinor Lubin on her cell at 760-445-1446.

Directions: You can also drive to the restaurant, 41 City Island Avenue, which has valet parking. Or you can take public transportation: Either take the #6 subway to Pelham Bay Park and transfer to the Bx29 Bus from the station to the Ditmars Street and City Island Ave stop (about a 10 minute ride from the subway stop) or you can also take an express bus from the eastside. It is the BxM8 Express bus which stops at 51st Street and Madison (10:08 am) and 3rd Ave at 86th Street (10:20 am) to the Pelham Bay Park station where you can transfer to the Bx29 bus to City Island. By public transportation, please allow at least one hour. Call Sally Menkes for further information on 212-689-6840.

Send checks payable to BNC to Sally Menkes, 341 West 24th Street, #10A, New York 10011.

Meet and Greet Brunch

Members, please come and bring your friends to have fun, enjoy a gourmet brunch, and get a taste of what a Brandeis Program is like. This is an opportunity to renew your membership or join Brandeis for the first time and meet other members including Gotham Chapter officers and members of the board. Guests and new members will have the chance to ask us in person what we do for Brandeis and about our interesting and fun-filled events.

Any current Brandeis member who brings a new member will be able to attend all eight sessions of our stimulating Wednesday Study Groups for free if the new member pays the annual dues by October 1.

Program

"Ongoing Conversation with Women in Second Adulthood"

SPEAKER – Suzanne Braun Levine

We are very fortunate to have this wise, articulate and delightful woman as our speaker. Suzanne is a writer, editor and nationally recognized authority on women, family issues and media. She was the first editor of Ms. magazine and the only woman editor of the Columbia Journalism Review. She is an advisor to several women’s and media groups, organizations dealing with midlife transitions and on the Board of Civic Ventures, a nonprofit think tank on boomers, work and social purpose. Suzanne's newest book: HOW WE LOVE NOW: Sex and the New Intimacy in Second Adulthood is the groundbreaking, funny, poignant and sometimes shocking "next chapter" in Levine’s ongoing conversation with Women in Second Adulthood.

Please stay for the monthly Board meeting after the brunch at 1:00. Board meetings are always open to all Brandeis members.

Make your reservations by September 1st for you and your guests.

SOMETHING TO LOOK FORWARD TO...

Roundabout Theater - Subscriptions are an important part of our fundraising effort for Brandeis, second only to our annual Book & Author Luncheon. You can still sign up for the 2012-2013 season. Tickets are for Wednesday matinee performances and Roundabout has a liberal exchange policy. A tax-deductible donation to Brandeis is included in the subscription price of $430. For more information contact Eleanor Schick, 212-988-4573 or eschick1@nyc.rr.com. Send checks payable to BNC to Eleanor Schick, #15Y, 215 East 68th Street, New York 10065.

LEARN TO PREPARE COMPUTER SPREADSHEETS

Pat Glickman has offered to teach computer spreadsheets to anyone who would be interested in learning this. You must have a spreadsheet program such as Excel or Office on your computer to be able to utilize this. Time will be arranged to be mutually convenient. For further information, call Pat on 212-486-3976. The cost will be $25 for two sessions at her apartment, plus follow-up phone consultations. Mail checks payable to BNC to Pat Glickman, 301 East 48th Street, #15F, New York 10017.

GOTHAM CHAPTER MEN’S GROUP

The first year ended with the discussion of two syllabi from Brandeis: Why is the Constitution like the Ten Commandments; and the viewing of a DVD and discussion of the movie “Citizen Kane”. Our book review of “The Prize” by David Yergin was reviewed in three sessions (a long book). Our outings included the Museum of Jewish Heritage, Fraunces Tavern, The Eldridge Street Synagogue and a backstage tour of the Metropolitan Opera House.

Our first fall outing will be a trip to "The Intrepid" on September 13 at a cost of $30. As usual, the cost of lunch is on your own. We also have plans for another book review and viewing the DVD and discussion of the movie “Casablanca”. We will meet in the fall to plan other programs.

Our group now has fourteen members. We welcome prospective new members who may attend one program free of charge. Our members can also attend all programs for the Gotham Chapter.

For more information contact: Erwin Weinberg at cygmom@aol.com or call 212-737-4044.

GOTHAM CHAPTER IS EXPANDING

We extend a warm welcome to our newest annual members who joined us since January 2012.

SUSTAINING THE MIND: SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH & SCHOLARSHIP

Alzheimer’s, Parkinson’s, Autism: all scary words that remind us of loved ones we have helped deal with these brain-related disorders. At Brandeis University researchers in over 50 laboratories are already making pioneering strides which have become increasingly important in the area of neurodegenerative diseases.

We invite you, as a member of the Gotham Chapter of the Brandeis National Committee, to participate in the Sustaining the Mind Campaign. The goal for this new three year campaign is $3 million to establish the Brandeis National Committee Endowed Scientific Research and Scholarship Fund. The campaign gifts will provide for an endowed fund for research in the neurosciences and neurodegenerative diseases, as well as an endowed scholarship fund for students in the sciences. In addition, for donors of $1,000 or more, the Gotham Chapter will have a special Sustaining the Mind event in the spring.

All gifts must be completed in the Brandeis fiscal year from July 2012 - June 2013. Categories are:

$1,000 - donor receives acknowledgment letter from BNC, becomes Sustainer of the campaign (for year in which gift is given) and name will be listed on BNC website with donor approval

$5,000 and above - donor receives same recognition as above and their designated name will be inscribed on our Major Donor Tribute Wall in the Library

$10,000 and above - same recognition as above and donor will receive periodic stewardship letters with information about the neuroscience/neurodegenerative disease research taking place at Brandeis and about a student in the sciences who receives scholarship support.

The link to Sustaining the Mind donating page through the Brandeis website is https://alumni.brandeis.edu/makingyourgift/sustainingthemind

The link for more information on the campaign through the Brandeis website is http://www.brandeis.edu/bnc/philanthropy/sustaining-the-mind.html

Donors who wish to pay in increments of $100 or more may do so by special arrangement.
For further information or to make payments by credit card, please contact Carole Weinberg, cygmom@aol.com or call 212-737-4044. (Our committee for this campaign is in formation).

LETTER FROM MIRIAM HALIMI

Our Brandeis University student liaison Miriam Halimi is now a senior and has written of her experience with the neuroscience departments at Brandeis University labs and classes:

“This coming fall will begin my final year at Brandeis University. The past three years have exposed me to some of the most phenomenal, groundbreaking achievements in neuroscience. My experiences at the labs and in classes here on campus have inspired me to the point of truly knowing what I am destined to do for the rest of my life.

Having spent my undergraduate career taking various science courses as a biology major on the pre-medical track, I now feel prepared to conquer my most challenging endeavor yet—the MCAT. One course in particular has proven to be especially significant to my studies here: Neurobiology of the Human Disease, taught by Professor Gregory Petsko.

Through his generous words of wisdom and genuine devotion to his field of study, he has inspired me to dedicate my future to the study of the brain; more specifically, neuroendocrinology: the interaction between hormones and different parts of the brain.

After taking his class, I began volunteering at a local hospice with patients suffering from various neurodegenerative diseases, among other ailments.

As an undergraduate, I am fortunate enough to feel I have already discovered my passion and aspire to become a physician with a specialty of geriatric neuroendocrinology. I plan to spend my final year at Brandeis as a teaching assistant for Organic Chemistry and hopefully attain a research position at Professor Petsko’s lab.

I am so grateful for the support that has allowed me to attend Brandeis and as the new student representative for the BNC National Board, I know how important it is to continue to gain support for all of the university's greatest accomplishments. This support will prove to be invaluable for myself as well as the many other student and professional scientists at Brandeis as we go forward with our contributions to the scientific advancements of the future.”

June 2012 board meeting: Carole Weinberg and Miriam Halimi

ANNUAL BOOK AND AUTHOR LUNCHEON – MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5
11:30 a.m. - The Harmonie Club, 4 East 60th Street

We are pleased to present another group of outstanding authors: Julie Salamon, Michael Gross, and Eric Van Lustbader. Please mark the date on your calendar. Invitations will go out at summer’s end. This is guaranteed to be an elegant and stimulating afternoon; we hope to see all of you there.

Michael Gross
One of America's most provocative non-fiction writers he has authored eleven books. His latest, Unreal Estate spent 15 weeks on the Los Angeles Times best seller list and is in development as an HBO mini series. Author of the best seller expose’s 740 Park Avenue and Rogue’s Gallery (about the Metropolitan Museum of Art) he is now writing a new book entitled Fifteen Central Park West. His journalism has appeared in Vanity Fair, Newsweek, New York and The New York Times.

Eric Van Lustbader
He has published more than twenty-five best selling novels including The Ninja, in which he introduced Nicholas Linnear, one of modern fiction’s most beloved heroes, continuing his exploits in five subsequent best sellers. His novels have been translated in over twenty languages and are worldwide best sellers. He was asked by the Estate of the late Robert Ludlum to continue the Jason Bourne series. The Bourne Identity continues and updates the adventures of Ludlum’s famous international assassin. He has gone on to write five more Bourne novels, including The Bourne Imperative, which has just made the New York Times' best seller lists.

Julie Salamon
The author of many best-selling novels as well as the film classic The Devil’s Candy, was previously a culture writer for The New York Times, and The Wall Street Journal. She has also written for The New Yorker Vanity Fair, Vogue and The New Republic. Wendy and The Lost Boys: The Uncommon Life of Wendy Wasserstein was written with the full cooperation of the Wasserstein family and literary executives. The life revealed is of a brilliant but complicated American artist, one who struggled both creatively and personally, and who fiercely held private a life she seemed so willing to explore in her plays.

All money raised at this event will go to “Sustaining the Mind”, a Brandeis’ initiative supporting neurodegenerative disease research.

10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. – Brandeis House
Speaker: Laura Lynch, Director of Education, Nassau County Museum of Art
We are turning the tables this fall and exploring the resources of three art museums that are in the New York metropolitan area, but not in New York City. The museums are the Nassau County Museum of Art, the Yale Center for British Art, and the Neuberger Museum of Art, on the grounds of SUNY Purchase.
We are fortunate to have three interesting and well-informed speakers to discuss their institutions, collections, and current exhibitions.

The first speaker will be Laura Lynch, Nassau County Museum of Art Director of Education.
Ms. Lynch has worked in the fields of art and museum education for more than twenty years. She initiates and manages long term, museum-school partnerships whose primary aim is to encourage students to actively find meaning when looking at art.

For the past ten years, Lynch has been working with diverse audiences, including English language learners, children and adults with special needs, as well as children from early childhood through high school. Lynch is responsible for training the docents who guide the museum's many visitors through its galleries. She also conducts professional development sessions to help teachers in any field find ways to use visual literacy and art in their classrooms. Lynch received an award from the President's Committee on the Arts and Humanities for a program she developed for high school students at the Queens Museum of Art.

Lynch will speak about the Nassau Museum's distinguished past history, including its architecture, formal gardens and park property, and its current mission to exhibit art from the 19th, 20th and 21st centuries in the sculpture park as well as the museum's galleries.

Lauren, or Boots, as she prefers to be known, has been an avid art history student for the past twenty-five years. She took up this interest as her nest emptied and has pursued it with a passion. Is there a program on television on art? She has seen it. She misses nothing. She has attended many lectures at the Metropolitan Museum and knows which lecturers are the best.

Boots began her docent career in the Rubin Museum in Manhattan, where she went through a year-long training program. When she moved to New Haven she joined the staff at the YCBA after one year of formal training, and attends weekly required classes. In addition to her regular docent duties, Boots leads a group of special needs adults through the museum on a weekly basis, using art as a means to get them to express themselves. She initiates hands-on projects and discussions with them. She will talk about the founder, the mission, the building and its architect, world-famous Louis Kahn, and the permanent collection, which was formed by Paul Mellon. She will show highlights from the permanent collection and, among other things, she will also discuss the current special exhibit of Anthony Caro’s sculpture.

COMMUNITY SERVICE REPORT

Your contributions make a difference!

Our Community Service project has proven to be a huge success. We have put smiles on many faces by contributing hundreds of food items to the senior centers and giving the gift of better eyesight through generous donations of eyeglasses.

Let us continue this good work. Suggested contributions are:
1. Packaged foods, such as small cartons of raisins, dry cereals, oatmeal, or any healthy foods which are easy to carry. (No canned goods, please - too heavy!)
2. Eyeglasses that you no longer need (including sunglasses).

Please remember to leave your name with your contribution so it can be acknowledged. Marilyn Bond (or Loeva Bernard or Phyllis Gates if Marilyn is unavailable) will collect your donations at the monthly board meetings and study groups. The following members continue to contribute items:

Thanks to all for a job well-done! Please let Marilyn know if we’ve missed anyone; we apologize for the oversight and will update our list.

North has been a Neuberger docent for the past nine years, an experience she has truly enjoyed. To be able to share the wonderful works in the permanent as well as the African collections with visitors of all ages, different backgrounds and interests, is constantly challenging.

Initiated in 1974 with Roy R. Neuberger's donation of one hundred eight works of art, the permanent collection of the Neuberger Museum of Art has grown to house more than six thousand works of uncompromised quality and variety. Featuring prestigious examples of modern, contemporary and African art, holdings include besides Neuberger's collection, the Aimee W. Hirshberg and Lawrence Gussman Collections of African Art, the Hans Richter bequest of Dada and Surrealist objects, the George and Edith Rickey Collection of Constructivist art, and American, Mexican and European master works from the collection of the late Dina and Alexander Racolin. The Neuberger Museum continues to collect and exhibit its permanent collection, enacting Mr. Neuberger's commitment to support the work of contemporary artists who examine and expand the ideas of our day.
