

Burt Solomon

Burt Solomon is the author of Where They Ain't, about the Baltimore Orioles of the 1890s, and two books of Washington history. The Murder of Willie Lincoln is his first novel. A Baltimore native and Harvard graduate, he has written about Washington's political, social, and cultural dynamics for more than three decades. At National Journal, he won the Gerald R. Ford Award for Distinguished Reporting on the Presidency in 1992. He is a contributing editor at The Atlantic. He and his wife and family live inside the Beltway.

Margaux Bergen

Margaux Bergen's newest book Navigating Life has invaluable lessons for students of life of all ages. What The Blessings of a Skinned Knee did for the early years of parenting, Navigating Life does for the next, far more perilous chapter, when new graduates are cast out on the high seas and have to learn to swim and find their way by themselves. Born in Paris and raised in London, educated at Edinburgh University and now living between Washington, D.C. and London. She is the mother of three and stepmother of five Millennials. She has spent her career working in international development and women's leadership and is still learning.

David Dalin

David Dalin, Ph.D., an ordained rabbi and widely-published scholar of American Jewish history and politics, has taught Jewish history at several universities. He has been a Visiting Professor at George Washington University and the Jewish Theological Seminary, and the Taube Research Fellow in American History at Stanford University. Dr. Dalin's newest book, Jewish Justices of the Supreme Court, from Brandeis to Kagan, was published this April by Brandeis University Press. It is the first history of the eight Jewish men and women who have served or who currently serve as Justices on the United States Supreme Court. Dr. Dalin received his M.A. and Ph.D. from Brandeis University. He received his Rabbinic Ordination, and a second M.A., from the Jewish Theological Seminary.

Make checks payable to BNC and mail to:
Cecily

Derwood, MD 20855

Dietary restrictions:

Contact Joan

Advance Reservations Only

Members $75 Non-Member $85
Reservations due by September 25th

Name _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Kosher Lunch—Catering by Alan Weiss

Tropical Mandarin Salad

Chose an entree:

___Apricot Brandy Chicken

___Asian Marinated Teriyaki Salmon

___Vegetable Wellington

All served with asparagus and potatoes

Dessert: Apple Tart over Raspberry Coulis

Please seat me with:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

9. _____

Total enclosed: $ _____

I am unable to attend but would like to Contribute $ _____ to the Sustaining the Mind Fund.

Non-Profit Org.
U.S. Postage
PAID
Suburban, MD
Permit No. 3664

Brandeis National Committee
Greater Washington Chapter

Invites you to our

Book and Author Luncheon

Wednesday
October 18, 2017

Congregation Har Shalom
11510 Falls Road
Potomac, Maryland

Book and Author Luncheon

Wednesday
October 18, 2017

9:00 a.m. Registration & Boutique

10:15 a.m. Program Begins

Moderator: Stan Levin

Congregation Har Shalom

11510 Falls Road
Potomac, MD

Co-Presidents

Tina Levine
Elaine Moss

Committee Chairs

Joan Bardach
Bobbie Hertzbach
Joy Shuman

The cost of the luncheon includes a charitable contribution of $25/$35 to Brandeis University Sustaining the Mind Fund, fostering research in neuroscience and neurodegenerative diseases.

Greater Washington Chapter
c/o Shelby Herman
5750 Bou Avenue #1216
Rockville, MD 20852

