UPCOMING EVENTS
10/06  Board Meeting, THURSDAY, Har Shalom, 10:30am
10/12  “Let’s Do Lunch”, Mosaic, 12:30pm
10/13  Book and Author Luncheon, Lakewood Country Club, 10am

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Greater Washington Chapter of BNC. We are a very active group and we hope that you will participate.

Here are some upcoming events. As you will see, they are interesting and varied.

First there is our fabulous Study Guide, which will appear on line three times a year with so much to choose from. The Book and Author Luncheon is just around the corner. Be sure to register quickly since space is limited. A copy of the invitation is in this issue of the Blast.

Plans are already well under way for a special event to take place on Sunday, December 4 and our annual Game Day on Tuesday, January 24 as well as our Spring Installation Luncheon, which will take place on Wednesday, May 17.

We look forward to seeing you at the membership meetings in November and March and also at Lunch and Learn, which will be on Wednesday, March 29. And, of course, our monthly board meetings are always open to everyone. The next meeting of the board will be on THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6 at 10:30 a.m., the day after Yom Kippur.

We wish you all a sweet and healthy New Year.
The Chapter Presidium: Beth S, Judy B, Honey E, Elaine M, and Janet M

The Miracle of Meringue
Do you know what a meringue is and how to make one? Did you ever attempt to make a meringue, but it just did not work? Meringue is a type of dessert, cookie, or candy often associated with Italian, Swiss, and French cuisine. Traditionally it is made from whipped egg whites and sugar, but it must be handled correctly to get the best results. Join us in Beth’s kitchen to learn the tricks and how to make some delicious meringue treats!
The parking is $1 per hour plus a $0.50 processing fee. There are three free spots in the loading dock that can be used for up to three hours.

Date: Thursday, September 15
Time: 1:30 – 3:00
Cost: $20
Location: The home of Beth S.
Enrollment: 6 – Minimum, 14 – Maximum

There She Was: The Secret History of Miss America
The sash. The Tears. The glittering crown. And of course, that soaring song. The Miss America pageant is indelibly written into the American story of the past century. For two years, Washington Post reporter and Style section editor, Amy Argetsinger visited pageants and interviewed former winners and contestants to unveil the hidden world of this iconic institution. Argetsinger dissects the scandals and financial turmoil that have repeatedly threatened to kill the pageant- and highlights the unexpected sisterhood of Miss Americas fighting to keep it alive. She will discuss how this pageant survived decades of social and cultural change and its redefinition because of the feminist movement.

Date: Tuesday, September 20
Time: 1:30-2:30
Cost: $20, $22 at the door
Location: Tikvat Israel, 2200 Baltimore Rd, Rockville
Enrollment: 15 – Minimum, No Maximum
The National Museum of African American History and Culture

Join us for a self-guided tour of a museum where all Americans can learn about the richness and diversity of the African American experience, what it means to their lives, and how it helped shape this nation. Highlights include Harriet Tubman's hymnal; Nat Turner’s bible; a plantation cabin from South Carolina; Guard tower from Angola Prison; Michael Jackson's fedora; and works by prolific artists such as Charles Alston, Elizabeth Catlett, Romare Bearden, and Henry O. Tanner.
The nearest parking garage is the Ronald Regan Building Parking, 1300 Pennsylvania Ave

Dates: Thursday, September 22
Time: 1:15 (Will meet at the Madison Dr entrance)
Cost: $25
Location: 1400 Constitution Avenue, NW. Washington, DC
Enrollment: 10 – Minimum. 25 – Maximum

Note Changes to Men’s Book Club
The Men’s Book Club will meet on the third Wednesday of each month. The book for the first meeting is, Caste: The Origins of Discontents by Isabel Wilkerson

Dates: September 21, October 19, November 16, December 21, January 18, February 15, March 15, April 12, May 17
Time: 3:00-4:00
Cost: $25
Location: Zoom until further notice
Enrollment: 8 – Minimum, No Maximum

A Personal Journey Across Gender Lines

Meet Dr. Chloe Schwenke whose book, Self-ish: A Transgender Awakening, is a fascinating story about a man from a military background who discovers through therapy that his unhappiness and depression were due to being a woman trapped in a man's body. Her story on how she made this gender transition will amaze attendees. Schwenke is a human rights advocate, writer and international development practitioner, whose life journey includes living in five countries and working on projects in some of the roughest regions of Africa, the Gaza Strip, Turkey, and other locales. She is one of the first three transgender political appointees in U. S. history (under President Obama).

Date: Thursday, September 29
Time: 10:30 – 11:30
Cost: $20 in advance, $22 at the door
Location: Tikvat Israel, 2200 Baltimore Rd, Rockville

Bagel Brunch & Glenstone Museum Tour

Join us for an outdoor bagel brunch at Greenbrier Park, weather permitting. We will then continue just ½ mile down the road to Glenstone Museum for a self-guided tour of the indoor exhibits and exterior grounds and structures. There is a quarter mile walk through the meadow between the parking groves and the Entry Pavilion. Glenstone offers cart service to bypass the meadow walk, which can be requested at the Arrival Hall.

Date: Sunday, October 2

Time: 9:00: Greenbrier Park, 10:00: Glenstone Museum,
Cost: $12
Location: Greenbrier Park, 12525 Glen Rd, Potomac,
                  Glenstone Museum, 12100 Glen Rd, Potomac
