160 Country Club Road, Avon
Arrival 11:30AM  Buffet Luncheon Noon  Speaker 1:00PM
Proceeds benefit the “Sustaining the Mind Fund” at Brandeis University

Please bring nonperishable Kosher foods for Jewish Family Services to the Luncheon

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT ~ BNC is supporting the Kosher Food Pantry of the Jewish Family Services of Greater Hartford. JFS provides non-perishable Kosher food products throughout the year to recipients, including breakfast foods for children during the summer months. Also needed are paper goods, such as toilet paper and paper towels. We ask our 2018 Spring Luncheon attendees to bring a bag or two of these items to the Luncheon. All items must be in carrying bags.

Greetings from the President...

Have you been following the dreamers of THE GOLD? First we were cheering on the hard-working athletes competing for GOLD at the Olympics. Then we were voting for our favorite movie-making talents, hoping to take home the statues of GOLD at The Oscars. And now? Our chapter is going for THE GOLD as we head into spring:

Group tours…Outdoor gardens…Literary conversations…Dynamic discussions

GOLDEN opportunities await us all as we peruse the list of our chapter’s spring activities: ongoing groups and one-time new activities while Learning…Laughing…Living…Loving

Remember the old song from Scouts:
Make new friends but keep the old; one is silver and the other GOLD.

….. Judy Silver, President

Guest Speaker Lucy Nalpathanchil
Lucy has been a public radio reporter for nearly 20 years, covering everything from education to immigration, juvenile justice and child welfare issues to veterans’ affairs and the military. Connecticut has been her home for a decade now after Lucy moved here in 2006 to become WNPR’s Assignment Editor. She’s also been local host for mid-day programming and for "All Things Considered." She contributes to National Public Radio, and her stories have aired on several national NPR shows including Morning Edition, All Things Considered, Weekend Edition, Weekend All Things Considered, Here and Now, and Latino USA.

During her time in Connecticut, Lucy has focused on immigration including New Haven's controversial ID card program, efforts for an in-state tuition law for undocumented students, and the Becoming American series: stories of immigrants and the citizenship process. In 2011, Lucy launched the Coming Home Project to tell the stories of returning Afghanistan and Iraq War veterans in transition. To learn more about the military, Lucy was chosen to take part in a week-long training for journalists hosted by the U.S Army at Fort Leavenworth, KS and Fort Leonard Woods, MO. Getting up at 3:30 am to participate in boot camp was most memorable!

In September of 2014, she was selected to join military reporters around the country for a conference hosted by the Medill National Security Journalism Initiative in Washington D.C. Lucy has worked in several states as a public radio reporter after beginning her career at WDUQ in Pittsburgh. She's received awards from Pennsylvania's Golden Quill, the New York State Associated Press, the Mayor's Asian American Advisory Board in Jacksonville, Florida, the Connecticut Associated Press and the state's Society for Professional Journalists chapter. When she's not in the newsroom, Lucy enjoys traveling, hiking, and planning her next garden. She and her husband, Jason, live in Suffield with their two children and a small zoo.

ACTIVITIES & STUDY GROUPS

Members are welcome to join our ongoing groups
(A contact person for each group can tell you details of next meeting)

ON-GOING GROUPS

1) Short Story Group meets the 2nd Wednesday, monthly at 1:30PM. The group discusses two stories each session. Starting in April, the new anthology is The Best American Short Stories of 2016 edited by Junot Diaz. New members are welcome.
   Questions: Amy Silverman ~ brandeishartford@gmail.com; 860-232-2452

2) Thursday Night Book Club meets the 3rd Thursday of the month. While this group is fully subscribed, members will work with anyone interested in forming a new book group. Arrival time: 7:30PM
   Questions: Judy Silver ~ rjhsilver@sbcglobal.net; 860-523-4424

3) Pathways Through Judaism meets the 2nd Friday, monthly at 12:30 PM. The group is beginning a new book, Essays on Ethics: A Weekly Reading of the Jewish Bible by Rabbi Jonathan Sacks. New Members are welcome.
   Questions: Joanne Pasternack ~ sauljo66@aol.com; 860-243-0442

4) Co-ed Book Group meets the 3rd Sunday, monthly at 2PM. This group is open to men and women, couples, and singles. The Group chooses a wide variety of books at an annual meeting, rotating discussion leaders and hosts.
   Questions: Judy Levy ~ judyglevy@gmail.com; 860-924-8748 or Carole Tannen ~ catrht@gmail.com; 860-217-1848

5) Foreign Film Group Films with varying themes, styles, and countries will be viewed and discussed each month. Prior to scheduled meetings, group members will receive an email naming the film to be shown. 6 person minimum. Time: 1PM Dates: Mondays ~ April 2, May 7, and June 4 at the Bishop’s Corner Senior Center's TV room, 15 Starkel Rd, West Hartford. A $15 fee, paid in advance, for the Spring series will cover the room rental cost. A non-BNC member may come as a Member’s guest for a $10 guest fee to only one of the three films. Questions: Steve and Linda Revis ~ steverevis1@comcast.net; 860-324-4869

6) Magic of Mystery Book Group meets the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 2PM. The group chooses one mystery novel a month to read before the meeting and discuss together.

Questions: Judy Silver-rjhsilver@sbcglobal.net

13) Friday, May 4 – A Conversation with Rabbi Debra Cantor of B’nai Tikvoh-Sholom, Bloomfield (and a Brandeis graduate). Rabbi Cantor was in the first group of women ordained by Jewish Theological Seminary in 1988. For more than the quarter-century she has not only witnessed change in the Conservative movement and the Jewish communities in the U.S. and Israel, but also often been at the forefront of significant developments. This event continues the ongoing series “How did we survive?” at the home of Dan and Joni Fine, 10 Cliffmore Rd, WH. Limit of 20. Light refreshments at 10 AM. Speaker at 10:30 AM.
Questions: Joni and Dan Fine – dafine17@comcast.net; 860-521-1438

14) Thursday, May 10 – Bellamy-Ferriday House & Garden (Lilac Girls’ Gardens)
9 Main Street North, Bethlehem, CT 10:30 AM This is a follow up to our Fall Luncheon guest speaker, Martha Hall Kelly, author of The Lilac Girls. Visitors will learn about Miss Caroline Ferriday, a 20th-century philanthropist, who championed human rights and social justice causes around the globe. A visit to the five-acre site includes the 18th-century residence, barns, and formal parterre gardens which feature historic roses, peonies, lilacs, and numerous fragrant trees and shrubs, making the site a destination for gardeners. Considerable walking on uneven ground.
Miss Ferriday supported the Free France Movement during World War II and secured medical assistance for Ravensbruck Concentration Camp survivors, receiving the Cross of Lorraine and the French Legion of Honor medal for her efforts. $10 fee submitted with registration. Group size limit of 15. Lunch for those who wish to join us, please check off for lunch on the registration form. See www.ctlandmarks.org/bellamy-ferriday
Carpools to be arranged.
Questions: Judy Levy – judyglevy@gmail.com; 860-924-8748

15) Tuesday, May 22 – Phil Handler, professional architect, and photographer, will repeat his popular Yale Architectural Walking Tour (sold out last October) promptly at 10:30 AM. Buildings will be explored both inside and out. Comfortable shoes are recommended for a considerable amount of walking. Limit of 20. Carpoles will be arranged. In New Haven, park in the Broadway parking lot across from the Apple store and meet at the fountain on the Rose Walk in front of the Sterling Memorial Library at 10:15 AM.
Questions: Judy Silver – rjhsilver@sbcglobal.net; 860-523-4424
16) Tuesday, June 5 – Roses for Autism Garden Tour 10:00 AM in Guilford will feature the rose gardens (and gift shop) where roses are grown and sold by employees with autism. Proceeds from this non-profit organization benefit career training programs and community sensory gardens. There are many opportunities for lunch and shopping in the Guilford area. Group limited to 20. Carpools will be arranged.
Questions: Judy Silver – rjhsilver@sbcglobal.net; 860-523-4424

17) Tuesday, June 12 - Cedar Hill Cemetery Tour 10:00 a.m. (Rain date: 6/27)
Established in 1864, more than 32,000 people have chosen Cedar Hill Cemetery as their final resting place, including artist William Glackens, Katharine Hepburn, J.P. Morgan, and Wallace Stevens. Encompassing 270 acres in a park setting, Cedar Hill serves as a sanctuary for each of these people as well as for memorial artworks, Hartford history, welcomed wildlife, and the many visitors who come to remember loved ones and tour the grounds. Our tour will begin at 10 AM and will last about 1 1/2 hours. We will meet at the flagpole at 9:45 am, at 453 Fairfield Avenue, Hartford. $5 CASH to be given to the Cemetery. Considerable walking on uneven ground. Rain date notification by email the afternoon before our scheduled date.
Lunch at Casa del Sol for those who wish to join us, please check off for lunch on the registration form.
Questions: Marsha Lowry – mlowry2@gmail.com; 860-507-6220

18) Thursday, June 21 – New Britain Industrial Museum Tour at 59 West Main Street. Come see what made New Britain the Hardware City of the World. The New Britain Industrial Museum collects, preserves and exhibits items representing more than 200 years of New Britain innovation and invention. New Britain’s impact has been, and continues to be, felt far beyond its borders. Very few of the items we use or wear everyday could have been created without a machine, a part, or a concept that originated in New Britain. For most of the 20th Century every American came into contact with at least one New Britain product a day; it was either made here, had a part in it that was made here, or was made on a New Britain machine.
Arrive by 10:15 for the 10:30 AM tour. $5 adult; $3 seniors, CASH paid at the door. www.nbindustrial.org on street and garage parking. Limit of 15.

Study groups, interest groups and tours are the biggest attractions for our members and are important fund raisers for our chapter. A small registration fee is charged for each activity to raise money and support Brandeis University libraries and other programs. Members will pay a maximum total of $60 for registration fees for activities (excluding the biannual chapter luncheons) from July 1, 2017 - June 30, 2018, our fiscal year. This does not cover guest fees, pay in advance or admission fees, or materials fees. Members of On-Going groups still need to send in a registration form and fee. A non-member may attend one On-Going group once for free and up to two One-Time Activities (space permitting) throughout our fiscal year as a paying Guest for $10 per activity, plus any materials or admission fees. To partake of additional activities, one must join our chapter of the Brandeis National Committee. Questions about activities: Amy Silverman ~ brandeishartford@gmail.com

Cancellation policy: Your check (not a phone call) is your reservation. If a cancellation is necessary, the member should notify Amy Silverman. No refund will be given. Monies paid remain with the chapter and may be taken as a donation by the registrant. If there is a waiting list for the event, Amy will notify the first person on the list. If there is no waiting list, the paid member may offer the reservation to a substitute. The substitute can reimburse the paid member directly.
SPRING ACTIVITIES & STUDY GROUPS Registration Form

If you registered and paid for the full year of an On-Going Group (except Foreign Film) you do not need to pay again. Amy will email the group coordinators the list of those who have registered.
