.... Judy Silver, President

About our guest speaker: Lary Bloom…

Author, editor, playwright, lyricist, college instructor, and extraordinary storyteller, Lary Bloom has written a new biography, Sol LeWitt: A Life of Ideas, in which he explores the life and philosophy of an unusual artist whose concepts were much more important than what he created with his own hands.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, Lary has been a Connecticut resident for many years, living at one time in New Britain, and now residing with his wife, Suzanne Levine, in Chester, Connecticut.

Having written for the New York Times and Connecticut Magazine, his name is familiar to many as the creator and writer of The Hartford Courant’s Northeast Magazine, an award winning and nationally recognized Sunday magazine. As an important force within the artistic community, Lary was instrumental in the creation of the Sunken Garden poetry festival, Art for all, and Mark Twain Days. In addition, Lary and his wife, Suzanne, along with author, Wally Lamb, founded the Writing at the Mark Twain House program.

Previously published books by Lary Bloom are: The Writer Within: Letters from Nuremberg (along with Senator Christopher Dodd), The Test of Our Times (with Tom Ridge), Lary Bloom’s Connecticut Notebook, and The Ignorant Maestro (with Itay Talgam). His plays include Wild, Black Yonder, Worth Avenue, and a musical: A Woman of a Certain Age. Lary has influenced many of his students at Yale University, Fairfield University, Trinity College, and Wesleyan University.

ACTIVITIES & STUDY GROUPS

Study groups, interest groups and tours are the biggest attractions for our members and are important chapter fund raisers for Brandeis University. This year all proceeds from our activities and events will fund the “Magnify the Mind Campaign.”

A small registration fee is charged for each activity. Members pay a maximum total of $60 in registration fees for activities (excluding the biannual chapter luncheons) from July 1, 2018 - June 30, 2019, our fiscal year. This does not cover guest fees, pay in advance or admission fees. Members of On-Going groups still need to send in a registration form and fee UNLESS you registered and paid last Fall.

A non-member may attend one On-Going group once for free and up to two One-Time Activities (space permitting) throughout our fiscal year as a paying Guest for $10 per activity, plus any admission fees. To partake of additional activities, one must join our chapter of Brandeis National Committee. For all BNC activities your check (not a phone call) is your reservation.
