Welcome to the 2013-14 Brandeis Study Group Season!
Dear Members.

We are thinking about numbers. As we enter the eighth month of the calendar year, we are entering the second month of the BNC - Phoenix fiscal year and the fourth month of our second year of our term of office.

We are looking forward to the 2013 -14 calendar year of activities. Watch for the soon-to-be-published Study Guide, a listing of our study groups for your enrollment. Please mail in your choice selections promptly as study groups fill up quickly. Even as we plan for the fall, we are in the third month of a most successful and busy summer. Numerous members (old and new) participated in our various groups of the summer. We were able to join many of these fun and imaginative activities and thank the chairs and facilitators for a job well done.

Membership has also been busy. We are proud to announce that at the time of writing, we have added 27 new members for this membership year. We know that this number will have grown by the time of printing. We welcome all our new members and welcome back our existing members. We hope you avail yourselves of the many study groups and upcoming programming.

Please save the dates September 28th for a BBQ and October 25th for an entertaining Opening Luncheon.

As we all attend events and support BNC-Phoenix, we continue to contribute to the Sustaining the Mind Campaign at Brandeis University. We are definitely a group that enjoys a membership of interesting and friendly men and women attending stimulating and entertaining activities, all the while supporting a most worthwhile and vital cause. We are proud to be your Co-Presidents and proud of all you do as members of BNC-Phoenix Chapter. Enjoy the year!

Your Co-Presidents,
Lori Roth and Marcy Strauss

It's finally here - the BNC Study Groups 2013-2014 season! Many of your favorite activities are returning, plus we have six brand new offerings, for a total of 34 groups. We are delighted to present a wonderful array of activities to choose from - there is something fun and interesting for every BNC Phoenix member.

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go." Dr. Seuss, I Can Read With My Eyes Shut

It has been said that "when learning is purposeful, creativity blossoms. When creativity blossoms, thinking emanates. When thinking emanates, knowledge is fully lit." Our study groups this year offer many opportunities to learn and places to go, many ways to spark creativity, thinking and the light of knowledge:

ART: Offered again this year are Studio Art & Bistro Lunch and Artist Studio Tours, plus two brand new opportunities to CREATE art: Plein Air Painting and Needlepointing with Friends.

ART APPRECIATION: Arizona Author Speaker Series and Concerts and Conversations (the new name for Phoenix Symphony Lecture Recitals) promise to be wonderful, so plan to come and join your Brandeis friends. At the Ballet returns for Saturday matinee performances, and a brand-new Opera group will feature docents from the Arizona Opera and a chance to secure your tickets to the operas they will highlight.

BOOKS: Brand-new Contemporary Bestsellers will join returning Jewish Books and Friday Afternoon Book Group. Study with the Best will feature the life and times of a fictional female detective - you won't want to miss it. If current events are to your liking, three Contemporary Issues groups return, for an all-star lineup!

COMMUNITY SERVICE: BNC Phoenix continues to give back to the community as Knit a Mitzvah returns to knit scarves for a variety of organizations that are in need of warming up children and adults.

FITNESS: Stay fit with BNC friends as Hiking, Play Golf and Yoga return for your health and enjoyment.

FOOD: Our ever-popular Lunch Bunch and Neighborhood Haunts groups are back! If you like going to the movies, you have two choices (do one or both!): Camelview Review and Lunch, and NEW Friday Matinee Movies and Lunch.

GAMES: Seasoned gamers or eager beginners - we have a group for you! If you would like to learn Canasta, there is a beginners group. Bridging It (a brand-new name for an old favorite) returns for intermediate bridge players. And the beginning and intermediate Mah-Jongg groups are both returning.

VALLEY ADVENTURES: Calling all explorers! Men of Brandeis, Girls' Night Out, Sun Lakes Potpourri, Cultural Sites in AZ, Boomers and Genealogy (come explore your ancestors) groups are all back!

REGISTRATION AND MEMBERSHIP

The fee for each study group remains $21.00, with a $3.00 early bird discount if you sign up by September 17th, so plan to sign up early! If you've joined study groups before, then you already know how wonderful they are. If you're a new member, please look through the Study Guide and join all the groups that interest you - and tell your friends!

Study groups are for the benefit of all BNC members, whether returning or brand-new. Contact Irene Lubin at 480-948-3773 or iwlubin1@cox.net for more information or to pay your membership dues by credit card.

We have been collecting books steadily through the summer. Our members have been so supportive, and in creative ways, resulting in the donation of quite a few books. Next week I will be picking up a box of books from Half Price Books. Right now, thanks to everyone’s wonderful efforts, we have more than 120 books!

It has been decided to donate all books collected to one school. We'd like to have a good number of books to make a significant donation so please continue to bring in books to study groups or meetings. Cash donations of $7 and under are also appreciated - they will be used to buy new books. Thank you to everyone who has helped with this worthy ongoing project!

Charitable Gift Annuity —— Immediate Payment

To establish a charitable gift annuity, you make a gift to Brandeis and in exchange receive a fixed annual dollar amount for life. The principal remaining at your death will then benefit any Brandeis program that you choose.

While gift annuities can be funded at a younger age, this type of gift might be especially attractive if you are aged 70 or above, you want to support Brandeis, and you would like to secure an immediate stream of income for yourself or for yourself and your spouse. The amount of the payments is based on the age(s) of the income beneficiary(ies). The older one is, the higher the payout rate one receives. In addition to the stream of fixed payments, the gift will also generate an immediate charitable income-tax deduction. If you are younger and you wish to begin receiving payments at a future date, a deferred-payment gift annuity might be a more suitable gift arrangement.

Gift Range: $10,000 and more

Example: Anne Bateman, aged 78, gives $25,000 in cash to Brandeis in exchange for a gift annuity. She receives an income-tax deduction of approximately $11,713, based on her age. She will begin receiving income checks of $1,600 each year for the rest of her life. When she passes away, the remaining principal will benefit Brandeis.

Pointer: The charitable gift annuity is especially rewarding if funded with appreciated long-term securities generating little or no income. If you transfer such securities to Brandeis in exchange for a charitable gift annuity, you will avoid a significant amount of capital-gain taxation and any remaining capital gain will be reported in prorated amounts over the life (or lives) of the beneficiary(ies).

A kick-off event designed to introduce students to exciting educational opportunities at Brandeis University, which are designed to take advantage of the presence of a major exhibition of Dead Sea Scrolls and artifacts from ancient Israel, was held on Tuesday, April 23 at 5:00 p.m. in Rapaporte Treasure Hall.

Students and other members of the Brandeis community were invited to sample food from the era and learn about the scrolls, their political and social context and the science of artifacts from the ancient world. Provost Steve Goldstein and Professors Marc Brettler, Andrew Koh and Michael Henchman discussed "Science, Artifacts and the Ancient World." Ben Federlin '14 and Alison Crandall '13 introduced an exhibit of classical artifacts from Brandeis' Classical Artifact Research Collection on which they have been working and provide on-site interpretation.

Brandeis University and the Museum of Science in Boston are collaborating on programming around a major exhibition of Dead Sea scrolls and artifacts from ancient Israel.

For more information, contact www.ethics@brandeis.edu or call 781-736-8577.

The exhibition, created by the Israel Antiquities Authority, will include fragments from 20 of the Dead Sea scrolls and more than 500 artifacts. It opened on May 19 and will continue until October, 2013.

Fragments of hundreds of scrolls have been discovered since 1947, mostly in caves in the area of Qumran, near the northwest corner of the Dead Sea. About 230 of the scrolls are manuscripts of biblical texts. The scrolls are of tremendous historical significance, offering a sense of how the biblical text developed, of the transition from biblical to rabbinic Judaism, and of aspects of the Jewish background of early Christianity.

The scroll fragments are shown ten at a time and rotated midway through the exhibit. In addition to the scrolls and smaller objects from the biblical period, highlights include a three-ton stone from Jerusalem’s Western Wall, limestone capitals from the first temple period (1000 — 586 BCE) and ossuaries from the early Roman period. The exhibition, which has been presented at Discovery Times Square in New York, the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia, and the Cincinnati Museum Center, was created by the Israel Antiquities Authority, from the collections of the Israeli National Treasures.
