President's Message

Dear Members:

Can you believe it's Book & Author time already? This year we have three wonderful authors. Two, I personally know. Judith Fabris is a lovely lady who I met through Leslie Goldstein. We all had lunch together & I was so impressed with Judith & all the stories she shared. She gave me a signed copy of her book which I loved. I also had the pleasure of meeting Bob Hamer the ex FBI undercover agent. Bob surprised me during a lunch we were both at with his sence of humor. I also read his book & couldn't put it down. The life he lead as an undercover agent was frightening as well as amazing! Kathy Cooperman used to be a professional comedienne. All of her emails as well as her wonderful book made me laugh out loud!

Please join us for this most intersting & important program of the year!

Best Regards,

Linda

Brandeis University Receives $8.4 Million Bequest Gift For Social Justice Initiatives

Seymour S. “Sy” Bluestone, a former rehabilitation doctor who visited Brandeis just once, but felt a strong connection to its social-justice values, left the university an $8.4 million bequest gift.

Bluestone, who died in September at age 96, carried a calling card that included his name, contact information and two other words: “One World.” The phrase reflected his belief that many of the world’s challenges can be solved only on a global level; that people suffering anywhere on the planet should be a concern of people everywhere.

At Brandeis, Bluestone found many examples of his philosophy in action, and he chose the university to continue his legacy of, in his words, doing “good for the human race.”

“Sy Bluestone’s bequest will help Brandeis continue to attract talented students of all backgrounds and perspectives,” said President Ron Liebowitz. “This gift will strengthen our ability to stay true to our mission as a university founded on openness, academic rigor and inclusiveness.”

Bluestone, who had lived in Clearwater, Florida, began making small gifts to Brandeis in the 1990s at the request of family friends. He visited the campus just once, in 2000, and learned about a number of Brandeis programs. Over lunch, he and professor Laurence Simon, the founding director of the Sustainable International Development (SID) program at the university’s Heller School for Social Policy and Management, began a discussion about poverty and other global issues that would last for years. “Sy connected with the quest at Brandeis to act on values and issues of social justice,” Simon said.
