Our government... teaches the whole people by its example. If the government becomes the lawbreaker, it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy.

Our contact Kim Cardoso is back & working hard at Palomar Child Abuse Facility. After she called me I made arrangements with Lois Novitz to give them the many donations that I had stored in my garage. Here is her thank you note to us:

Thank you. Seeing you was hugely gratifying.

We were so DELIGHTED to receive approximately 40 pillows, 10 knitted hats, 23 handmade dolls, 3 hand made Octopus dolls, 7 children's t-shirts, and 12 stuffed animals from Brandeis.

Skyline, Brandeis' Newest Resident Hall

Skyline, Brandeis' newest residence hall, features sweeping views of downtown Boston and prioritizes energy efficiency and sustainability. It opened to some early arriving students Aug. 14 and 15 and will open to all residents Aug. 28.

The resident hall was designed by renowned Boston architects William Rawn Associates. The building's heating and cooling run on a system of 40 geothermal wells. Brandeis also installed solar panels on Skyline's roof, which will account for a portion of the building's power and help with peak campus electricity demand management. The new residence hall sits on land formerly part of Usen Castle. It will house 164 students.
