President’s Message

Dear Members,

Well, we are off to a great virtual year full of popular study groups, meetings and special events. The Treasure Coast Chapter of BNC isn’t skipping a beat due to Covid-19. Although we haven’t been meeting in person, our Zoom interactions have helped to fill the void.

Our kickoff event at the Elliott Museum was a big success. We all enjoyed our museum tour prior to Chad Periman’s presentation. Thanks to Chad we now have a new perspective on salvage yards and the treasures they hold. Kudos to Sophie Glazer and Barbara Richman our VP’s of Study Groups for a job well done.

The first General Meeting of the year with Carolyn Timmann enlightened us about the amendments on the ballot in Martin County. An informed voter is a better voter. Hopefully we all completed our census forms and plan to vote or have already voted. Thanks to Jackie Wein & Maxine Milliken for planning this meeting. We are all looking forward to our second General Meeting in January with Renee Weisman. Plan to join us and consider inviting a friend by completing the registration form found in this bulletin.

As long as your dues are paid, all chapter members can attend not only our study groups, but any study group offered by another chapter. To see what chapters are offering take a look at the chapter pages on the Brandeis website. Study groups on Zoom make all the BNC chapters in the United States available to members. Brandeis University also offers a variety of programs. Make sure you sign up to get their weekly emails at www.brandeis.edu and subscribe to “Brandeis Now”. Although we are unable to gather for in person activities there’s no reason to be bored. Take advantage of all the virtual programming available with your Brandeis membership.

Stay safe & stay well,
Sandra Goldfarb, President
Brandeis Goldfarb Library has several unique collections relating to social justice and the decision was made to digitize them, in part to honor the library's 60th anniversary. The digitization process assists in preserving the collections, enables them to be accessible to more people, and is more user friendly in the digitized format for teaching and research. The digitization is being performed by professional vendors and students are assisting in the preparation of the documents for the process. The process is not inexpensive and the funds are being raised through a campaign, Honoring Our History. As of July 23, the campaign raised $60K of the $500K target. Currently, a project plan is being assembled and the completion date is yet to be determined. When completed, the collections will be available to anyone - BNC members and others as well. The original collections will still be maintained and available in the library.

Some of the collections that are being digitized are:

Jewish Feminism Collections, includes, among others

Marcia Freedman Papers:

Marcia Freedman was an American-Israeli activist and feminist. Of particular note in the collection are materials documenting her feminist roots, files relating to her election to the Knesset in Israel in 1973 and her founding of the Women's Party in Israel in 1977, as well as autobiographical writings throughout the collection. Material dates from the late 1960s to the 2010s.

The Leo Frank Trial Collection

The Leo Frank Trial Collection at Brandeis University documents one of the most notorious capital-punishment cases in twentieth-century America. Leo Frank was a pencil-factory superintendent in Atlanta, Georgia in 1913. Frank had been convicted for the murder of Mary Phagan, a thirteen-year-old girl who was found murdered in the basement of the National Pencil Company factory at which Frank was the superintendent. The trial created a frenzy fueled by the media and anti-Semitism. After thoroughly reviewing the case, Georgia Governor John Slaton commuted the sentence from death by hanging to life in prison. On August 17, 1915, a group of influential citizens in Atlanta, enraged by Slaton's decision, abducted Frank from his jail cell and lynched him in Marietta, close to Mary Phagan's ancestral home. Frank's lynching was covered by newspapers nationwide and had lasting repercussions, such as the growth of the Anti-Defamation League.

Helmut Hirsch Collection

These are the personal papers of Helmut Hirsch, a German Jew—technically an American citizen—and member of the anti-Nazi organization the Black Front.

Jewish Resistance Collection

This collection contains a range of materials including underground publications, by German Communist and French Jewish resisters to the Nazi regime before and during WWII; international post-war reports documenting the persecution and extermination of Jews and the course of several Nuremberg trials; Nazi paraphernalia; and contemporary and post-war magazine and newspaper articles on Jewish resistance during the Holocaust. One such publication, a German antifascist pamphlet from 1933, is disguised as an owner's manual for an Electrolux vacuum cleaner. Materials are in various languages: English, French, German, Hebrew, Russian, Spanish, and Yiddish.

WHERE DO YOUR BRANDEIS MONIES GO?

"Brandeis National Committee is dedicated to providing philanthropic support to Brandeis University....its membership is connected to the University through fundraising." Established as a non-sectarian research university that welcomed talented faculty and students of ALL backgrounds and beliefs, Brandeis is one of the few universities in America with inclusivity as a founding principle.
Every year chapters raise money for various campaigns, funds and the University Libraries. These have included: Magnifying the Mind: Advancing Neuroscience Research, Sustaining the Mind, and Honoring Our History.
All annual dues goes to Brandeis University.
Chapters also raise money through Tribute Cards, Study Groups, Special Events, Programs and in kind contributions.
Tribute Fund benefits the library through acquisitions in the name of the honoree. Contact Deborah Paylatakis debpaylatakis@hotmail.com
Special Events & Programs are fund raising activities. All flyers set a specific amount over expenses which is tax deductible and goes to the University for the specified fund or campaign stated on the flyer.

BNC supports SafeSpace as our community service project. It is a local organization founded in 1979, that offers victims (both men and women) of domestic violence safety, support, and education, empowering them to create an independent life free from violence. Programs available like the Protection Program offering legal services; Economic Justice, an Empowerment Program assisting with financial literacy and independence; and a Nursery Room project where moms can spend time with their infant and toddler children assist residents and the community as well.

When a person enters the SafeSpace 60 bed emergency shelter, most arrive with the barest minimum of necessities. They are given a chance to select clothing from items donated to the thrift shop and are supplied with toiletries (which folks like us can supply). Items like hotel shampoos, toothpastes, lotions, makeup samples, etc., can be put to good use.

In addition, the shelter needs regular household items to function. Items like cleaning supplies, toilet paper, paper towels, etc. are part of the ongoing "wish list" shown below. Gift cards are always welcome and there is an ongoing need for food items. When food shopping remember BOGO can also mean BUY ONE GIVE ONE.

Donations of clothing, used furniture, kitchen items, etc. can be made at the thrift shop located at 10011 US-1 in Port St. Lucie. Items will be accepted on Tuesdays – Thursdays from 10:00 – 1:00. Arrangement for pickup of larger items can be made by calling 772-287-7505. Smaller items, other than clothing, can also be dropped off at the Stuart location at 612 SE Dixie Highway. Members may bring donations to BNC meetings and they will be delivered to the facility.

Find SafeSpace on Facebook or their website www.safespacefl.org to keep informed of community activities being held around Stuart and Port St. Lucie.

If further information is required regarding donations, call me at 772-233-7739.
