Welcome Brandeis Members to the 2019-20 Study Group Program

We hope you will enjoy our excursions, both in house and Beth Tikvah study groups as much or more than in past years. We continue to try to come up with new and “renewed” exciting and interesting offerings.

Once again our joint efforts with Wellworth Chapter will include the popular Frank Cerabino, Dr. Robert Watson, Dr. Robert Rabil and Myrna Goldberger. (Frank Cerabino and Dr. Robert Rabil sessions are listed separately in the One Day Sessions.) This year our own Wycliffe residents, Steve Singer and Art Garcia will also be presenting at Beth Tikvah.

Returning for in-house study groups, by popular acclaim, are Roz Adams, Jill Seligman, Dr. Steve Teran, Rabbi Michael Ehrlich, and Karen Kurzer. Some new Wycliffe residents will also be offering their insight and expertise: Fred Rojee on the CIA and Dr. Marshall Stern on pet nutrition. Lenore Nass’s ever popular cooking class has been postponed for later in the season. An email will be sent out as soon as it is available.

Please check these out, as well as our excursions: Tours of Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge, HARIAD Conservatory, Ann Norton Sculpture Garden, and hands on at Hoffman Chocolates.

PLEASE READ THE STUDY GUIDE CAREFULLY!!
Please be certain you have paid your dues before registering. Any question? Call Robin Safer. Please have husbands and wives fill out separate registration forms, and we suggest you keep copies. Forms can be mailed together with one check (payable to BNC). DON’T FORGET YOUR SELF ADDRESSED STAMPED ENVELOPE.

We want to tell our registrar, group leaders and coordinators how very much we appreciate their efforts. They are a great part of what makes Brandeis and BNC strong.

~ One Day Sessions ~

December 2019

History You Didn’t Learn in School
Tuesday, December 3 10:00 AM
Leader: Myrna Goldberger, FAU Lifelong Learning Lecturer
Coordinator: Ellen Wechsler, 966-3444, allansue17@gmail.com
*Location: Temple Beth Tikvah, 4550 Jog Rd., Greenacres
Fee: $20.00

This lecture will focus on unusual stories in American history that are not well-known. For example: What was the most unusual pardon in our history? Who were the Shuler twins? Why was Simon Bamberger called a gentile? This is the first of 3 lectures presented by Myrna Goldberger, who with her wit and wisdom, has not only entertained us but educated us as well.

Hoffman’s Chocolate Picture Frame Class
Wednesday, December 4 10:00 AM
Leader: Hoffman’s Chocolatier
Coordinator: Zelda Freedman, 791-6441, zmfl@aol.com
Location: Hoffman’s Chocolates, 5190 Lake Worth Rd., Greenacres, FL
Fee: $25.00

In this class, you will not only create a decorated chocolate frame, you may also create a completely edible photo inside that frame. To do so, please email a 5 x 7” picture to jkmholz@hoffmans.com one week before the event. A window tour of the factory is also included in this day.

Hoffman’s Chocolates is located 5.5 miles east on Lake Worth Rd.
Note: Carpools will also be meeting in the golf side parking lot at 9:30 AM
White Nationalism Challenges & Threats

Coordinator: Michele Banker, 855-4409, mrsb99@hotmail.com
*Location: Temple Beth Tikvah, 4550 Jog Rd., Greenacres
Fee: $20.00

Mr. Cook has been a lecturer on China for the past 9 years. This study group will discuss among the following: What did China do when they learned of the policies taken by Nazi Germany against the Jews? Why didn’t Japan entertain ideas to exterminate the Jews in Shanghai at Nazi Germany’s request. Finally, why is China so interested in the study of the Holocaust today? Come to this very interesting lecture to find out.

January, 2020
Overview of the CIA
Monday, January 6  3:30 PM

Leader:  Fred Rojee, Retired CIA Officer
Coordinator: Jackie Ertel, 328-8439, erteljackie@gmail.com
Location:  Jackie Ertel, 4925 Exeter Estate Lane
Fee: $15.00

Mr. Rojee will start his lecture with a brief history and overview of the CIA and its mission. He will then discuss some of his experiences (to a point) giving a “day in the life” snapshot. Noting that there will be restrictions on what areas can be discussed, there will be a time for a question and answer period.
The 2020 Elections - An Early Primer

Coordinator: Lee Shaps, 318-6465, lwshap@aol.com
*Location: Temple Beth Tikvah, 4550 Jog Rd., Greenacres
Fee:  $20.00

While court cases are always interesting, the most intriguing cases often concern people in the field of entertainment. Ms. Goldberger will discuss the court cases of Errol Flynn, Charlie Chaplin, and Lana Turner and her daughter, Cheryl. How did their status as “stars” affect the outcome of each situation?

Nutrition for Your Pets
Wednesday, January 15  3:30 PM

Leader:  Marshall Stern, Prof., Dept. of Animal Science, U. of Minnesota Coordinator: Joyce Primost, 847-4918, jgprimost@gmail.com
Location:  Clubhouse Board Room
Fee:  $15.00

Much of the information provided on pet food labels provides little practical value in assisting nutritional assessment. How can a pet owner make an informed decision when there are thousands of products to choose from, each designed to attract pet owners? Professor Stern’s lecture is designed to help pet owners make informed decisions with information about pet foods and pet food manufacturers.
Leonard Bernstein
Thursday, January 16  7:00 PM

*Location: Temple Beth Tikvah, 4550 Jog Rd., Greenacres
Fee: $20.00

We've all been there: trying to reason with an incredibly difficult person. It can be frustrating, maddening, and sometimes even frightening. The truth is, you can't reason with an unreasonable person. However, is the difficult person always the difficult one? Mr. Greenberg helps us look at both "them" and "us" through an interactive discussion. Mr. Greenberg motivational messages were heard daily for 5 years on hundreds of radio stations with millions of listeners.

Digging Up the Old Testament
Thursday, January 23 10:00 AM
Leader: Art Garcia, Adjunct Professor Palm Beach State College
Coordinator: Joyce Primos, 847-4918, jprimos@gmail.com
*Location: Temple Beth Tikvah, 4550 Jog Rd., Greenacres
Fee: $20.00

Ever since the completion of the Torah and the Tanakh, historians and archaeologists have scrutinized and analyzed the Old Testament. Who wrote it, and when? What about the Torah itself? When and by whom was it written and compiled? Was Moses a real person? These and many other "secrets" will be decoded and uncovered by amateur biblical historian, Art Garcia.

Books That Drove the Censors Crazy
Friday, January 24  10:00 AM
Leader: Margery Marcus
Coordinator: Anni Kirschner, 968-2631, annikirschner@gmail.com
*Location: Temple Beth Tikvah, 4550 Jog Rd., Greenacres
Fee: $20.00

Books have the power to delight and educate, but they can also fire up community outrage and political and social anger. The tradition of book banning - and even book burning - continues in America even now, threatening our right to choose what we read. Join in the lively discussion examining the banned books in America.
FDR & The Holocaust - A Study in Indifference

Hidden Antisemitism Today - The BDS Movement
Wednesday, February 5  10:00 AM
Leader:  Jane Elison, Member of several Jewish Advocacy Groups
Coordinator:  Michele Banker, 855-4409, mrsb99@hotmail.com
*Location:  Temple Beth Tikvah, 4550 Jog Rd., Greenacres
Fee:  $20.00

The BDS (Boycott, Divestment, Sanction) Movement Club is dangerous, because its true goal is hidden. It can seduce unaware, but well-meaning, groups to jump on the bandwagon, thinking that they are supporting a human rights movement. The real but veiled aim of the BDS movement is to delegitimize the existence of a Jewish state and to ultimately destroy it. Learn more about this newest form of antisemitism.
Neil Diamond / Billy Joel
Thursday, February 6 1:00 PM
