Sex worker activism has become increasingly visible around the world. We will discuss the history, goals and strategies of different groups within the sex workers’ rights movement, drawing on experiences in the US, India, and Kenya. We will also talk about conflicts and alliances between the sex workers’ movement and the feminist movement.

A speaker from Sex Workers Outreach Project (SWOP), Boston

Gowri Vijayakumar
Assistant Professor, Sociology

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 4 pm
Alumni Lounge, USDAN Student Center

The Social Justice Forum is a conversation series that encourages the Brandeis community to connect and discuss pertinent and compelling issues related to social justice on campus. SJF is a collaborative effort of Graduate Student Affairs, the Intercultural Center, the Office of the Chaplaincy, and Library and Technology Services.

To join the planning team, request more information, or to suggest topics, please contact Forum administrator David Wedaman: wedaman@brandeis.edu